

University of Alberta Distinguished Professor

University of Alberta Distinguished Professors have achieved significant distinction and scholarship in each of the areas of teaching, research and/or creative endeavours, and service to the University and the community at large. Their scholarly work must have merited broad recognition; their teaching and student supervision ability must be widely recognized by colleagues and students; and, they must be regarded as exceptional citizens.

Funds in the amount of $20,000/annum during the first and any second term for up to five years total, will be available for approved research and/or creative scholarly activities. The funds may be used for a variety of purposes and in a combination of ways. No portion of the award may be taken as salary for the recipient. Funds are to be discontinued if a University of Alberta Distinguished Professor vacates the position for any reason other than approved sabbatical leave.

Eligibility

Any Continuing Academic Staff at the University of Alberta from the following categories (as outlined in the UAPPOL Recruitment Policy \(Appendix A\)) may apply:

- A1 (Schedule A - Academic Faculty Member, Scheduled F - Administrative and Professional Officers (APO) Member, Schedule B - Faculty Service Officers (FSO) Member, Schedule C - Librarian);
- A2.1 (Schedule D - Academic Teaching Staff (ATS) Members (Career, Term 12, Term Recurring))

Selection Guidelines

As outlined in the UAPPOL Application and Selection Procedure, the following was considered in the development of the adjudication criteria for the University of Alberta Distinguished Professor award:

- Evidence of recognized contributions in their fields
- Evidence of a career commitment to excellence in teaching, research and/or creative activities, and service to the University and the community at large
- Evidence of an outstanding reputation in student supervision, mentorship and educational leadership
- Merits of the proposed project, including articulation of how their project aligns with the University's strategic plan(s).

University of Alberta Distinguished Professor recognizes those exceptional faculty members who are globally recognized leaders and whose teaching, scholarly work, and service have made them leaders in their disciplines.

Application Process

Two-Phase Application Approach

In Phase 1 of the application process, we invite you to submit an expression of interest. This should introduce yourself to the committee, describe how you engage with the institutional commitments outlined in Braiding Past, Present and Future: University of Alberta's Indigenous Strategic Plan and our institutional commitments to equity, diversity, and inclusivity. Your expression of interest should also highlight your commitment and dedication to excellence in teaching, research, and service. Those selected to advance to Phase 2 will be asked to provide a detailed narrative application, including specific evidence that demonstrates your excellence in these areas.

In other words, Phase 1 is about introducing yourself and your story, and Phase 2 is about diving deeper and providing concrete examples and evidence to support that story.

An Application Template is available online through the Awards for Faculty Excellence website.

Translation services are available upon request at no cost to the applicant.

Multi-Modal Application

You are welcome to submit your application in the modality of your choosing (written, audio, video, graphics/animation etc.). The application template is designed to provide guidance on the criteria and specific information that should be included in your submission. If you prefer an alternative submission method or modality, please contact excellence.awards@ualberta.ca for assistance.
